DEATH.

At the General H. spital, Shanghai, on the 13th September, 1899, JOHN SHITH, aged 29 years.

Moneyove, September 22nd, 1899 ORE paragraph in the Reuter's message published in our columns to-day is of special interest. The Chinese Minister at Washington is reported to have made a protest against the exclusion of the Chinese from the Philippines. If there is indeed any serious intention on the part of the Washington Government to extend the United States Chinese Exclusion Laws to the Philippine Islands, it is not the Chinese who will be the greatest sufferers. The Americans in the Philippines and the foreigners there en. gaged in trade or industries would feel the offects of such exclusion most severely. The Philippino unfortunately, though some degrees less indolent than the natives of the Rev. Timothy Richards. Malayan peniusula, is not naturally addicted to labour : he only works under the spur of zecessity, and when his immediate wants are supplied he feels little incentive to further effort. If the trade and resources of the Islands are to be vigorously developed the assistance of the Chinese must be invoked, and the restrictions imposed by the Spaniards when in possession should be very materially relaxed. Under Spanish domination the Chinese, though far from welcome, always formed an influential section of the population in the cities, and proved most valuable settlers, spite secretary. of some drawbacks inseparable from their reculier and disagreeable habits. If, however, it is proposed by the Americanauthorities to dispense with the assistance of John Chinaman in opening up the fertile received from Shanghai last Autumu, for it group which they have taken under their protection, it is to be feared that the in Foochow. One of the two had a chisel and he development of trade, which has been eagerly auticipated, will not come so quickly as was at first hoped, and that the resources gramme. There are a few old ponies in the of the islands will take a long time to onen up. The fear of any competition of Chiness labour with that of the American citizen has not in this case to be considered. for white men cannot undertake outdoor eseployment in such a climate as that of the Philippines, and as the natives will only work when and how it pleases them they need not be specially considered. The Inreely perpetrated in this Colony and the reason more people have not been presented is the difficulty of bringing home the guilt to the real offenders." In the present case the proof was so clear that the defendant pleaded guilty to three out of the five counts in the indictment, and although he afterwards tried to plead in mitigation that he was absent at the time the fraudulent labels were used in his shop the plea does not carry much weight in the absence of any proof of its truth. It appears from a case cited by the Acting Chief Justice in his judgment that the master of an establishment even if not present can be held criminally responsible for trade mark frauds committed in his absence, but in the present case there is no reason to suppose that Lt PAR is suffering vicariously for faults committed by his subordinates without his knowledge or approval. The sentence of six months' hard labour and payment of the costs of the prosecution are calculated to have a deterrent effect upon other wrongdoers of a like kind. It may be remembered that a conviction for arson obtained by the police a few years ago caused a marked diminution in the number of suspicious fires, and the present conviction for fraudalent dealings in respect of trade marks will no doubt result, for a time

Three years later it further improved, but still no idea of a magasine rifle was entertained. In 1890, this Mn rate weapon was converted into a repeater, but the process of manufacturing the new arm proceeded slowly; and, when the war with China broke out in 1894 the troops had to take the field without magazine rifles. There was general impression at the time that the Japanese forces were as well armed as the Chinese They were not. PENDED. FINAL ACTION DELAYED PENDING A MORE DETAILED INQUIRY.

New York, 24th August. A special to the Sun from Washington says: Dr. Edward Bedlos of Pennsylvania, United States Consul at Canton, China, has been sus-The meeting declared that Mr. Chamberlain's pended from the exercise of his consular duties and is now on his way home to answer serious charges. One of the allegations against Bedloe is that he granted an American register to a steamer engaged in carrying arms to the Philippine insurgents, and it is said that it has been represented to the State Department that in awaiting the "reduction" of M. Guerin's house | taking this action the Consul was aware of the anapicious character of the ateamer. Involved in the case are other matters which it is reported, will operate against the return of Bedloe to Canton to an official capacity if he is cleared of the charges in connection with the granting of a register to a filihustar. Influential friends of the accused official managed to have the State Department withhold final action until Benloe had a chance to be heard in his own defense, and nothing will be done until the fulest inquiry has been made. A great deal of evidence concerning the charges is on tile in the department and Ronnsavelle Wildman. United States Consul General at Hongkong, is credited with having furnished much of it. applies to the Filipines. The first official report concerning her came from Admiral Deway in a telegram dated Manila received at the Navy Department on September 27, 1898 telling of the seizure. The seizure was instified by the fact that the Abbey had no registry nor clearance papers. She was subsequently released on representation from her owners and nothing was 1899. heard of her officially until several months after Aguinaldo's insurrection against the United States had been in operation. Then N. W. Sutterlie of Philadelphia applied for an American registry for the Abbey at Hongkong.

In one of the reports on file in the States Department Sutterlie is charged with having absconded with a large amount of money belonging in-Philadelphia. The vessel was loaded with arms and amminition, and Sutterlie wanted to have her cleared to another Chinese port Consul General Wildman, is said, refusd to grant the register or to clear the Abbay as an American vessel, but in some way she got to Canton, where application was renewed be fore Consul Bedloe. According to the meagre information obtainable, Sutterlie wanted to clear the Abbey for another Chinese port. She still had munitions of war on board. Consult Bedloe, it is alleged, granted the application for an American, register and cleared the steamer. Whether she landed her cargo in the Philippines or was actually a filibuster cannot be accertained from the officials here. Admiral Dawey's dispatch of September 27th says that the Consulate at Canton had information that she had made "one voyage of the same kind before.
